POSITION SUMMARY:

The Assistant Chief Operator's primary responsibility is to assist the troop Chief Operator in ensuring the efficient and effective operation of the Troop Communications Center. During the course of duty, the Assistant Chief Operator supervises, schedules, and directs the activities of subordinates and performs a variety of administrative duties as assigned by the troop Chief Operator.

The Assistant Chief Operator is a "working" supervisor and has the same public safety communication and technical responsibilities as a Communication's Operator. Primary communications responsibilities are to handle radio traffic both to and from patrol units and other law enforcement agencies; answer incoming emergency and nonemergency telephone calls from the public and other law enforcement entities; and accurately enter, retrieve, and disseminate information in the Missouri State Highway Patrol computer system (MULES) and associated computer systems (NCIC, NLETS, DOR, REJIS).

DESCRIPTION OF DUTIES PERFORMED:

(Any one position may not include all of the duties listed nor do the listed examples include all tasks which may be found in positions of this class.)

Supervisory Responsibilities:

Directly supervises and evaluates the work activities of subordinates. Monitors phone and radio communications of subordinates to ensure compliance with rules, regulations, and standard operating procedures. Reviews logs and reports submitted by subordinates to evaluate accuracy, thoroughness, and compliance with existing policies/procedures.

Provides direction, guidance, coaching, and counseling to subordinates. Provides feedback to subordinates after incidents or events to assist them in critiquing their own performance and develop more effective ways of handling future situations.

Assists with on-the-job training of new employees. Monitors and evaluates new employee performance to ensure compliance with rules, regulations, and standard operating procedures.

Prepares subordinates' work schedules and assigns tasks, projects or areas of responsibility and organizes workload and priorities of subordinates.

Monitors staffing levels by reviewing daily and monthly assignment sheets and/or time-off requests to ensure adequate staffing is maintained. Monitors subordinates' use of sick leave and overtime to make sure proper forms are completed and to detect problems.

Prepares written reports and correspondence such as justifications for supplies and equipment, forecasts of radio needs, program development and implementation information, and research results on topics assigned by the troop Chief Operator.

Assumes the responsibilities of the troop Chief Operator in his/her absence.
