Poplar Bluff, MO

Jim Culbertson was last seen on April 6, 2010. He was threatening suicide and left a note saying he was going to harm himself. His family believes that Jim would find a wooded area in order to hide if he was going to commit suicide. He is very familiar with the Mark Twain Forest area around Greenville, Missouri. Shotgun shells were found at his house but there was no gun. Jim's only form of transportation is to hitch hike. If you have any information concerning his whereabouts, please contact the number listed below.
