A survey crew located the human remains of a white male in a wood pile near Highway KK and Lincoln Hills Road in Troy, MO. The victim was of a heavier muscular build wearing a black Jerzee sweatshirt size XXL, khaki Cherokee pants with a 46" waist and a 30" inseam, white shoes that were size 12, a brown belt with a silver buckle, and blue Hanes flannel patterned boxers size XXL. The victim was also wearing a pair of black rimmed glasses that had one broken arm along with an Aquatech digital watch. He had a large amount of dental work that included one gold cap, severe osteoarthritis in his back and based on the bone structure, he was right handed. Located near the body was an Eveready Flashlight, a teal cylinder style Igloo cooler with a white lid and a maroon handle, a teal thermos with a black lid, and a small silver folding knife. DNA and dental records are available.
